Who can visit?

In 2016, over 5,000 people visited the Heathrow Jobs and Careers Fair, with over 48 schools and colleges involved from across the five local boroughs.

Benefits for school and college groups

- It's free to visit, and a travel bursary is available for school and college groups
- Students will meet employers face to face and gain a real understanding of the range of skills required and opportunities available
- Top names from the airport in 2016 included British Airways, British Gas, Carillion, Carluccio's, Casual Dining Group, Cath Kidston, Caviar House & Prunier, Delaware North, DHD Metal Concepts, DHL International (UK), Dixons Travel, Dyer and Butler, EAT., Gordon Ramsay Group, Hamleys, HSS Hire, Kurt Geiger Morgan Sindall, Sodexo Prestige, World Duty Free and many more
- Students can talk to apprentices, managers and staff who will motivate them with their own career stories
- There will be impartial help and advice with CV preparation, interview techniques, and guidance on developing employability skills
- Gather up to date information for your career library on further education, vocational training and employment opportunities
- Visiting will help you meet Ofsted requirements such as ensuring:
  - o Students receive good quality independent impartial information and advice on career options available to them, including information on vocational provision, such as apprenticeships
  - o Students have the information, knowledge and understanding they need to make informed choices about the subjects and programmes they take in school as first step to longer term careers goals
  - o Students have the opportunity to participate in programmes that support their medium and long term plans for progression.
